Draft
The Rules as now revised will not meet cases of this kind Can only be given to students already holding scholarships who have not come up to the prescribed standard - The Dewan has the power to afford relief in deserving cases
Both the Dewan in his minute of 20 11 97 suggested providing two other scholarships for the FA Course for the BA Course the draft rule 5 provides for 2 additional for the FA Course also - I do not think there is reason - The general rule 5 may be omitted & that proposed to rule 6 retained before sending these Rules as now drafted I would wish to talk over the matter with the Dewan how the Rules can only take

Sir

I have the honor to report that it has happened for the first time that two boys (M Narasimha Iyengar from the Central College and K Narayana Iyengar from the Shimoga College) are equal for the 5th place among Mysore students who passed the late Matriculation Examination in the first class and in these special circumstance I have the honor to request that Government may be kindly disposed to sanction a 1st class Scholarship of 10 Rs each of them The only other

Many would be divided the 5 First class Scholarships equally between them In Ramanuja Iyer is a Student in the Senior B.A class of that College and his father has in the Senior B.A class of Kumbakonam College and such a case of equality is not likely to occur again perhaps for many years I would strongly recommend a special exception being made in this case

2/ I have the honor to bring before the Government for the grant of a special Family Schol-arship on account of the long continued service of his father the Name of V Ramanuja Iyer a Student in the Senior B.A class of that College

His father V Rajamma Iyer was in the Government Service from 1865 to March 1896 when he died before taking his pension He was originally an assistant Master in the Government High School, Bangalore, then for 3 Years Head master of Shekarpur Government School then 1868 Head Master of the Government School, Chennapatna the for 10 years Head Master, Government School Chickballapur, next for 12 years a Deputy Inspector of Schools, Tumkur and lastly for 5 years Curator of the Government Book depot, Bangalore, and I understand that he has left his family poorly provided for In these circumstances I trust the Government will be kindly disposed, to grant a Special Family Scholarship to his son say of Rs 10/- per month for 1898 and 1899 to be continued if he passes the
